[redacted] Krasnoturinsk (59-49N, 60-15E) is situated close to Karpinsk (59-45N, 60-04E). 50X1-HUM

2. The works was set up to produce cement in connection with the erection of plants for the numerous branches of industry which exist in the district, including ore and coal mining. In addition the works furnishes cement for the workers' houses, which are replacing the workers' settlements which consist chiefly of wooden hutments.

3. About 1,800 workers are employed in three shifts. They include Russian civilian workers, Russian convicts, and about 300 German PWs.

4. Machinery is of Russian manufacture. Raw material and cement are conveyed about the works in small hand-operated rail cars on narrow gauge lines.

5. Raw material is obtained from quarries and pits in the vicinity of the works to which it is transported by truck.

6. The works is surrounded by a wooden fence. There are no watch towers. Security is in the hands of factory police, who check all passes.
